Staff members

- 2.2 The positions of the staff members shall be divided into three categories:
- (a) Category I includes the Secretary-General and the Deputy Secretary-General.
 - (b) Category II includes the Dean of the World-Wide Academy and the Directors.
 - (c) Category III includes all other permanent staff members.

3. THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

The Secretary-General may be re-elected by the General Assembly for up to two additional consecutive terms of three years each in accordance with the Convention Article 10.2.

3.2 While the Staff Rules to the extent that this is appropriate apply to the Secretary-General, the specific terms and conditions of the employment of the newly elected Secretary-General shall be determined by the President and the Chair of the Finance and Audit Group.

3.3 In cases where the Secretary-General is empowered by the Staff Rules to exercise discretion in their application, any decision that personally affects or concerns the Secretary-General, shall be endorsed by the President.

3.4 The Secretary-General is responsible for ensuring that all staff members comply with the Staff Rules as applicable and that all non-permanent staff members comply with the rules for non-permanent staff. 9.10 Harassment shall be subject to disciplinary measures in accordance with Rule 30.

10. RESIDENCE PERMIT

10.1 In respect of Article 18 of the Headquarters Agreement, the Organization shall inform the French Government of any new recruitment.

10.2 Once it has been informed of their appointment, the French Government shall issue each staff member except those with French nationality or having already permanent residence in France, in line with the procedures in force in France, with a special FI-type residence permit, identifying the respective person as a staff member of the Organization. The dependant family members of the staff member will also receive the same residence permit. The staff member must ensure all permits are returned on termination of employment.

11. OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT AND ACTIVITIES

11.1 Staff members shall not engage in any outside occupation or employment, whether remunerated or not, without the approval of the Secretary-General.

11.2 The Secretary-General may authorize staff members to engage in an outside occupation or employment, whether remunerated or not, if:

12. CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

12.1 A conflict of interest is a situation, either real or potential, where the private interests or personal relationships of a staff member could improperly influence the way in which that person carries out duties for the Organization.

12.2 The Organization promotes an environment founded on honesty, responsibility, fairness, transparency and accountability to maintain the integrity of the Organization and its decision-making processes. Conflicts of interest may affect, or have the potential to affect, the reputation and professional judgement of the Organization.

12.3 When an actual or possible conflict of interest does arise, the conflict shall be disclosed by the staff member to the Secretary-General and, wherever possible, resolved in favour of the interests of the Organization in a transparent and appropriate manner.

12.4 Staff members who are considered to have breached the requirements regarding the management of conflicts of interest, as set out above, may be subject to disciplinary action, as included in Rule 30.

12.5 Staff members agree all rights related to work carried out by the staff members in the performance of their official duties, whether intellectual property rights, copyright or patents, will be proprietary to the Organization.

14. MEDICAL EXAMINATION

14.1 All appointments for staff member positions are made subject to passing a medical examination, organized by the Secretariat, within the first three months of the probationary period, to ensure that the staff member is medically fit to discharge the respective duties.

14.2 During employment, staff members are required to undergo medical examinations every five years to determine if the staff member continues to be medically fit to fulfil the duties.

14.3 If the result of a medical examination under Rules 14.1 or 14.2 shows that a staff member is no longer able to carry out their duties for the Organization, the Secretary-General shall take a decision regarding the continuation of the duties or the termination of the contract due to the professional work incapacity resulting from the medical reasons.

14.4 If a staff member disputes a medical opinion, another medical specialist shall be designated by the Secretary-General to carry out such examinations, analyses and other investigations as deemed necessary.

15.2 No staff member shall carry out functions under the authority of a close family member.

15.3 In case of any personal relations of a staff member with another staff member or non-permanent staff member, either already existing before the beginning of the contract or developing during the employment, the nature of these relations is to be disclosed to the Secretary-General in writing within a reasonable period.

15.4 The Secretary-General may consider organisational changes in the Secretariat in order to avoid authority issues of staff members in accordance with Rule 15.2. The decisions may be appealed according to Rule 31.

15.5 The marriage or equivalent of one staff member to another shall in principle not affect the contractual status of either spouse with the exception of Rule 15.4, but their entitlements and other benefits shall be modified accordingly.

16.4 Category III for other staff members comprises two grades, (S1) for general service staff and (S2) for other staff.

16.5 The basic salary awarded to the staff member upon appointment must fall within the salary range associated with the grade and shall be determined by the Secretary-General based on the level of qualification, experience and autonomy of the post.

Reassignment

16.6 The Secretary-General may reorganize the tasks of the Secretariat where it is considered necessary for the efficiency of the work in the Secretariat.

16.7 In line with the principles in Rule 13.1-13.3 where applicable, the Secretary-General may reassign staff members to other positions within the Organization. If the change of position involves new responsibilities or additional work, the terms of employment may be revised.

16.8 Reassignment of staff members to other positions shall depend on their competence, efficiency, and conduct. It shall be based on an evaluation of their performance within the framework of the annual performance assessment as described in Rule 21.

17. BONUSES

17.2 All staff members who have completed one continuous year of service shall be entitled to an incremental salary progression, which is then paid monthly with their basic salary.

17.3 The incremental salary progression is calculated by multiplying a fixed index mentioned in Annex C, by the number of points accumulated. Two points are awarded for each year of service.

17.4 Incremental salary progression corresponds to the time worked since the effective date of commencement as a staff member, including the probationary period.

18. INTERNAL TAX

18.1 As per Article 11.2 of the Headquarters agreement, the salaries and emoluments, with the exception of annuities and pensions, which are paid to staff members in Categories I, II and III shall be exempt from French income taxation.

18.2 In lieu of French income taxation, an internal tax shall be applied to the salaries of all staff members in accordance with the Headquarters agreement. The rate of the internal tax shall be fixed at 5% of the monthly salary after deduction of the social charges.

18.3 Where a staff member is subject both to the internal tax of the Organization and to national income taxation in the declared home country in respect of the salaries paid by the Organization, the Organization shall refund to the staff member the amount of the internal tax up to the amount paid by the staff member to the Organization for the relevant identical period. Reimbursement is not granted if the salary paid by the Organization is not taxed directly by national income tax.

18.4 The sums accruing from the levy of an internal tax, and not due to be refunded under Rule 18.3, constitute a specific income to the budget of the Organization.

18.5 Each year, the organization shall provide each staff member with a statement setting out the amounts paid to that staff member by the Organization in the previous year in the form of salaries, emoluments, and allowances.

18.6 The relevant staff members shall remain obliged to declare their tax-exempt income to the competent French authorities so that they are not granted unwarranted social benefits.

18.7 In all cases, staff members are personally responsible for complying with the income tax laws applicable to them. Any penalties, interest or other charges payable because of the failure of a staff member to comply with such laws will not be reimbursed by the Organization.

19. SALARY

Calculation and payment of the salary

19.1 The gross salary is composed of the basic salary, the incremental salary progression and other allowances as applicable. The net salary is derived by deducting social charges, internal tax and other possible contributions as applicable, from the gross salary.

19.2 Staff members are paid on the basis of net salary. The annual net salary shall be paid in 12 equal instalments. Each instalment is paid before the end of the month, in Euros and by bank transfer.

Salary advances

19.3 The Secretary-General may, in exceptional and compelling circumstances, and if the request of the staff member is supported by a detailed justification in writing, authorize an advance on the monthly salary. Salary advances will be deducted from next salary payments before the end of the current year over a proportionate period to avoid financial hardship. These arrangements including the repayment period and amounts involved will be set out in writing and signed by both the Secretary-General and relevant staff member.

Adjustment of remuneration

19.4 The Secretary-General may decide to increase the salaries to reflect changes in the inflation rate as published by the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) normally within the approved annual budget.

20. RECOVERY AND RETROACTIVITY OF PAYMENTS

Recovery of undue payments

20.1 The Organization shall recover payments made in error to a staff member and also the value of annual leave taken in excess of entitlement and salary advances not repaid. The right of the Organization to recover shall be limited to two years after the date of the last payment of the undue money, or, in the case of a series of payments of undue money, two years after the date of the last payment. Staff members shall be under an obligation to report any payments made to them in manifest error to the Secretary-General upon noticing them.

Retroactivity of payments

20.2 A staff member who has not been receiving an allowance or other payment to which the staff member is entitled shall send to the Secretary-General a written claim within one year following the date on which the staff member would have been entitled to the initial payment.

20.3 The reimbursement to the staff member of due money shall be limited to the amount of money not paid during the two years immediately preceding the date of the written claim made under Rule 20.2.

21. STAFF PERFORMANCE ASSESSMENT

21.1 A formal interview between the staff member and the relevant responsible manager shall take place once a year or after a return to professional activity following a long interruption of the period of employment such as sick leave, maternity leave etc.

21.2 The annual performance assessment shall include discussions related to achievements, assessment of capabilities, annual objectives, and any other expectations with regard to professional development. The conclusions and observations, including a performance rating and relevant justification, shall be recorded in a performance appraisal report, signed by both parties.

21.3 In the event of a dispute, the matter shall be reported to the Secretary-General who shall endeavour to resolve the problem. Failing resolution, the appeals procedure provided for in Rule 31 shall apply.

22. SOCIAL SECURITY

General principles

22.1 In accordance with Article 13 of the Headquarters Agreement, staff members shall be affiliated to the French social security system that covers expenses and benefits related to healthcare, maternity, paternity, disability, occupational accident and illness, government pensions contributions, family allowances, unemployment and death.

22.2 Staff members are entitled to such social security benefits both for themselves and for designated beneficiaries, i.e., members of their dependent family. Social security contributions are calculated in accordance with French requirements and are deducted from each staff members' monthly gross salary.

22.3 Social security registration will result in the issuance of a social security number and an electronic registration card, the Carte Vitale.

Additional health insurance

22.4 Staff members may be affiliated to an additional health insurance (mutual) which reimburses all or part of the remaining medical costs not covered by the basic social security system.
